

To Whom It May Concern,

As you may know, Vercel Inc. completed a SOC 2 Type 2 examination in June 2025. The period for that examination was July 1, 2024, to June 30, 2025. The scope of the report included Trust Services Principles and Criteria for Security, Availability, and Confidentiality.

The objective of this letter is to provide the users of our report with an update regarding our services and the related controls included in the scope of the SOC 2 report for the period of time that has elapsed since the end of the review period. In light of this, please be advised that the following statements are true to the best of our knowledge for the period of time between the conclusion of the review period and the date of this letter:

- There have been no events subsequent to the review period of the report that would have a significant effect on our assertion contained within the report.
- There have been no significant changes to our control activities described in the SOC 2 report since the conclusion of the review period.
- The control activities that govern our services have operated as described in the SOC 2 report since the conclusion of the review period.
- We are not aware of any significant operating or design deficiencies specific to the control activities described in the SOC 2 report that have occurred since the conclusion of the review period.

If you have any further questions regarding this topic, please contact security@vercel.com.

Sincerely,
Signed by:
